RESOLUTIONS OF CONFERENCE.

Salary of Preachers.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to prepare an address to the Churches within our bounds, upon the necessity, as a matter of sheer justice, of increasing the allowance of the preachers at least from fifty to one hundred per cent. more than it was three years ago.

Resolved, That two hundred and fifty copies of it be printed, one copy of which shall be sent to each Estimating Committee, and one to each presiding elder, to be read by him to his first quarterly conference, and, if deemed necessary, to the congregation the following Sabbath morning.

Anniversary of the Missionary Society.

Resolved, That we request the Board of Managers of the Parent Missionary Society to hold their next anniversary in the city of Cincinnati.

Conference Claimants.

Resolved, That the presiding elders are hereby requested to apportion the sum of $10,000—the amount required to meet the claims of the necessitous superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphans of preachers—to their several districts and charges, at the same time and in the same manner as the missionary funds are distributed.

Transfer of Rev. J. L. Grover.

Resolved, That Bishop Ames be respectfully requested to transfer the Rev. J. L. Grover from the Ohio to the Cincinnati Annual Conference, if he, in his godly judgment, should deem such transfer consistent with the interests of the work.

Fifth Collection.

Resolved, That each preacher shall hereafter be requested to report before the Conference the amount of his Fifth Collection at the same time he reports his Missionary Collection.

Central German Conference.

Resolved, That brother Wunderlich, present from the Central German Conference, is requested to convey in return the greetings of this Conference to the Conference of which he is now a member.

Collections for Hillsboro Female College.

Resolved, That the Agent of the Hillsboro Female College report the receipts of his collections to J. F. Chalfant, Treasurer of the Educational Fund of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

Published Reports.

Resolved, That the Cincinnati Annual Conference hereby authorizes its printed reports, duly certified by the Secretary, in the published Minutes of this Conference, as an authentic and genuine version of our Conference Reports.

Wine Drinking.

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the members of this Conference to report any fellow-member who is guilty of drinking wine.

Conference Minutes.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Cincinnati Conference Missionary Society be directed to pay to the Secretaries of our Conference a sum sufficient to pay for the printing, in our Minutes, of the Detailed Missionary Report of this year, and also to liquidate the deficit in that respect of last year.

Resolved, That each member of our Conference who has already subscribed for our forthcoming Minutes, hereby agrees to increase his subscription by five copies, so that the cost per copy may be proportionally reduced, and the number distributed increased.

Vote of Thanks.

Resolved, That we return a vote of thanks to the citizens of Greenfield for their very cordial, hospitable, and Christian entertainment of the Cincinnati Conference.

LAW QUESTIONS.

QUESTION. When a quarterly conference, to which an appeal has been made, fails to finish the trial of the appeal, or neglects to refer it to a subsequent quarterly conference, is this proper administration?

ANSWER. It is not correct administration. It is the duty of the quarterly conference either to finish the appeal or postpone it.

QUESTION. When an appeal has been made to a quarterly conference, can a subsequent quarterly conference try the appeal, or any part of it, unless the appeal has been properly referred to the subsequent quarterly conference?

ANSWER. There is no provision in the Discipline on the subject. The constitutional right of an appeal, however, seems to require action when it has been neglected; but the appellant, I think, should have the privilege of choosing either the hearing of a subsequent quarterly conference, or of complaining to the Annual Conference against the administration.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

GREENFIELD, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 15, 1864.

I HEREBY certify that the following Reports were adopted by the Cincinnati Annual Conference at its session of 1864.

WILLIAM H. SUTHERLAND,
Secretary of Cincinnati Annual Conference.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Ohio Wesleyan University.

YOUR Committee beg leave to submit the following financial exhibit of this institution:

ASSETS.—University grounds and buildings.....	$65,000 00
Library, cabinets, and apparatus.....	17,000 00
Permanent fund.....	114,100 81
Interest due, notes collectable, and moneys.....	5,607 85
Total.....	$201,708 66
LIABILITIES.....	9,052 97
Excess of assets over liabilities.....	$192,655 69

In reference to an increased endowment of this institution, your Committee recommend for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we heartily concur in the plan of the Trustees of the Ohio Wesleyan University, and will endeavor, in our respective charges, to take up annually an educational collection that shall equal at least ten cents for every member and probationer.

2. The sums thus raised shall be reported annually, at the session of the Conference, to the Committee on Education, which Committee shall designate one of their number as Treasurer. Said Treasurer shall receive the funds reported, and pay one-half of the same to the Treasurer of the Ohio Wesleyan University, and the remaining half to the Treasurer of Hillsboro Female College.

3. The collection shall be taken annually on the Sabbath following the last Thursday of February, as far as practicable.

4. As the last Thursday in February is quite generally observed in our country as a day of prayer for colleges, therefore we recommend its general observance by our people; that they assemble in their accustomed places, and beseech the Great Head of the Church to pour out the Holy Ghost in an especial manner upon the institutions under our patronage.

5. That we earnestly request our wealthy laymen to consider prayerfully the duty of contributing large and liberal sums to the endowment of the University.

In this connection your Committee report with pleasure the liberal donation of one hundred and sixty acres of land, valued at $1,600, to the University from Rev. Nehemiah Green, of the Cincinnati Conference.

Your Committee recommend the appointment of Dr. John Davis, of Cincinnati, as Trustee, to fill a vacancy in the Board; and also that Revs. W. L. Hypes and A. Meharry be the Visiting Committee for the ensuing year.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to continue Rev. L. D. McCabe, D. D., as Professor of Philosophy in the University.

Wesleyan Female College.

From the Visiting Committee we have a gratifying report of the condition of this institution. Under the able supervision of Rev. Dr. Rust, a most efficient and experienced educator, assisted by a competent corps of instructors, it has enjoyed a growing prosperity. The present Conference year has opened with an increased number of pupils, indicating an augmented interest on the part of the public.

The institution is finely endowed, and when the plans of the Trustees shall have been fully consummated, we believe we shall have an institution unsurpassed by any of similar character in the West.

The Committee recommend the appointment of the pastors of Wesley, Christie, and Park-Street Chapels, and the presiding elders of the East and West Cincinnati districts, Visitors for the ensuing year.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. R. S. Rust, D. D., to the Presidency of the institution.

Springfield Female College.

This institution of learning, formerly under the supervision of Prof. E. G. Dial, has been in a very prosperous condition during the past year. Its patronage from abroad has been so large that every room in the college buildings has been occupied, and it has given entire satisfaction to its patrons. The examination of the collegiate year which closed June 23d was, so far as the Visiting Committee witnessed, highly satisfactory, and gave evidence of thoroughness in the several branches of study on which they were examined.

Professor Dial having resigned the principalship, is succeeded by Rev. W. I. Ellsworth and Rev. J. H. Herron, who have been elected to the joint principalship.

Its financial condition does not differ materially from what it was last year; the debt reported on it being something over $4,000.

As this beautiful institution is situated in one of the most healthful locations in Ohio, and has already opened under very favorable circumstances, your Committee cordially recommend it to the patronage of parents who desire to have their daughters thoroughly educated and placed under good moral training.

We also recommend that the pastors of High-Street and Central charges, and the presiding elder of Springfield district, be a Visiting Committee.

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. W. I. Ellsworth and Rev. J. H. Herron to the joint principalship of this institution.

Xenia Female College.

Your Committee learn with pleasure that this institution has prospered greatly during the past year; and that President Smith, assisted by an efficient corps of teachers, is laboring to make it all that the Church can desire.

Your Committee recommend the appointment of the pastors of the Xenia stations and Union circuit as Visitors for the ensuing year.

Hillsboro Female College.

Hillsboro Female College, last year under the control of Rev. Henry Turner, is reported, by its Visiting Committee and Board of Trustees, to have sustained its long-merited reputation as a first-class literary institution. At this early period of the Academic Year we are gratified in being able to report the institution more promising than in any period in its past history. The present term commenced August 25th, and has a larger number of pupils from local and also from foreign patronage than has been in attendance for some years past. Rev. Allen T. Thompson, A. M., has been elected to the Presidency of the institution, and has taken hold of its interests with energy, and infused a very hopeful spirit into the affairs of the College. Its patrons have taken fresh courage, and, with more energy than in the past, are rallying to its support with a determination that the institution shall live. We are glad to learn that Miss Mary J. Warren, at the head of an able corps of lady teachers, is retained for the present year. Miss Warren is a finished scholar, an experienced governess, a tried and successful teacher, well and favorably known, and has been sought after by four other leading institutions. To her care is committed, as governess, all the young ladies of the institution. Rev. H. Turner is in charge of the boarding department, and no better accommodation need be furnished than is daily prepared in this department.

The College is financially embarrassed, and all aid promised from this Conference has failed, except $1,000 paid by Hillsboro station and $264 received from other points. This failure, on the part of the Conference, to provide for the payment of $5,000, as the friends of the institution were led to infer the Cincinnati Conference would do, from resolutions adopted by that body in 1861-63, has somewhat embarrassed the Trustees. But with the plan suggested by the Ohio Wesleyan University and the one proposed by the Trustees—namely, that Rev. A. T. Thompson be authorized to solicit funds for this institution within the patronizing bounds of the College—there are reasons to believe that the amount will be raised.

Your Committee would recommend the passage, therefore, of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. Allen T. Thompson, A. M., to the Presidency of Hillsboro Female College.
2. That the preachers in the bounds of the patronizing territory of the College be requested to afford the President, Rev. A. T. Thompson, an opportunity of presenting the claims of the College before their several congregations.
3. That the presiding elder of the district, the pastor of Hillsboro station, Rev. A. T. Thompson, brother D. H. Sargent, Jacob Saylor, W. M. Meek, Rev. H. Turner, and Rev. Samuel Anderson be appointed Trustees for the ensuing year, on the part of the Conference.

4. That Rev. L. D. M'Cabe and the pastor of Greenfield station be a Visiting and Examining Committee for the present year.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

A report has been presented by the Faculty of this institution, from which we learn that it has been in successful operation since 1856. The whole number of students since then has been 267. Of these 58 have graduated, and more than 100 have entered Annual Conferences, including 6 who have gone out as missionaries.

Since the commencement of the war the number of students has diminished, some having entered the army as chaplains, others as soldiers, and others have been prevented from attendance by the pressure of the times. The income of the institution has been materially lessened, requiring rigid economy and considerable retrenchment. As this state of things can not be wholly remedied for many years to come, the Trustees have felt compelled to ask the Church at large to aid them in the erection of permanent outbuildings adapted to the present and prospective necessities of the students.

The Faculty and friends of the institution feel that the time has come when a more intimate relation should be secured between it and the several Annual Conferences within its patronizing district.

As the object and plans of the institution have been officially sanctioned by three successive General Conferences, and as the times very properly demand, for our rising ministry, not only an ardent piety, but also careful mental training and thorough Biblical scholarship,

1. Resolved, That we heartily approve the object of the Garrett Biblical Institute, and will place it in the list of institutions under our patronage.

2. That we earnestly recommend our young men, who expect to enter the ministry, to avail themselves, so far as practicable, of the facilities offered by our colleges and Biblical Institute, as a most important and desirable preparation for their great work.

3. That we appoint Revs. M. Smith and A. Lowrey as Visitors to the Institute for the ensuing year.

Linden Hill Academy, New Carlisle, Ohio.

This institution, under the labors of Rev. Thomas K. Taylor and lady, has enjoyed a good measure of prosperity during the past year.

The present term, under the care of Mr. Charles Wesley Sexton, as Principal, has opened with encouraging prospects.

The Committee recommend the appointment of brother Jos. C. Wallace as Trustee in place of brother Samuel Sturrett, resigned, and the pastors of Carlisle and Fairfield charges as a Visiting Committee.

Wilberforce University.

Professor Mitchell, a member of the Faculty of this University, has made highly favorable and encouraging representations to us of the work and prospects of this institution, and has also solicited in its behalf our continued interest and sympathy.

Although the University has now no official connection with the Conference, yet we, retaining a lively interest in its success, therefore,

Resolved, That the Wilberforce University, in view of its aims and the auspices under which it is at present prosecuting its work, is entitled to the confidence and sympathy of the Christian public, and that any assistance afforded it in its straitened financial condition will be most worthily bestowed.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

THE importance of sustaining and increasing the circulation of our religious journals will be admitted by all. They have been, in the hands of God, the means of diffusing religious knowledge, and, in brief, of advancing the best interests of the Church. They are now exerting a good moral influence wherever their circulation is extended. But while we rejoice that they have met with favor from the Church in general, and are now meeting with favor from it, we regret that a small portion of our membership are hostile to them.

What is more deplorable, we have official members who utterly refuse to support our Church papers on account of their opposition to slavery, and the hearty support they give to the Government in its efforts to suppress the present rebellion. At the same time these men subscribe for and read with approval papers which are not friendly to the ministry or the Church, because they advocate such principles as those to which we have referred. While such combined efforts are being made to crush our religious publications, does it not behoove us as ministers, into whose hands are submitted the great interests of the Church, to meet such opposition, whether it comes from those who are not members, or from "false brethren," regardless of the sacrifice that such a course demands? therefore,

1. Resolved, That, since his connection with the Western Christian Advocate, Dr. Reid has evinced intellectual ability, piety, and patriotism, elements necessary to the success of a religious journal, in this age of treason against Divine and human Government; and we hereby pledge him our influence in extending its circulation.

2. Resolved, That the clear diction and classical style of Dr. Wiley, displayed in the Ladies' Repository, give promise that it will retain the eminent character as a literary and religious periodical, secured for it by the great and good men who have preceded him in its editorial management, and with confidence we will commend it to the people of our respective charges.

3. Resolved, That we recognize the Christian Apologist as an instrument, in the hands of God, of doing much good among the Germans, and, with Dr. Nast as its editor, we predict for it a still greater prosperity, and will assist in fulfilling this prediction.

H. M. KECK,
JAMES STEPHENSON,
WM. I. FEE.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

YOUR Committee have had the subject of temperance under careful consideration, and are deeply impressed that it is not receiving from us that earnest, persevering attention that the crying evil of intemperance demands of us at the present time. The painful fact that intemperance is on the increase is apparent to all. The practice of drinking intoxicating liquors prevails in fashionable society. Even some members of our Church keep it in their houses as a beverage. Some of our wealthy members treat with contempt all temperance movements, feeling that they are out of the reach of the denunciations of temperance men. If the pulpit does not bring the Word of God to bear upon them, their example and influence will be against the cause of temperance. Tippling leads to drunkenness in the Church, as well as out of it. Can we as ministers meet these persons at the bar of God and there be acquitted unless we faithfully and persistently warn them of the sinfulness and danger of their course?

Another cause of the spread of intemperance is the humiliating fact that many of our members are making money by supplying materials for the traffic; furnishing grain to the distiller, thus scattering woe and death throughout our fair country. Suppose an agent of the Southern army should come along and offer double the market price for grain to feed that army, and members of the Church should sell their grain to him, what an excitement would be raised! Every loyal man would be in arms against them. But is the rebel army doing more against the interests of our Government than those who are engaged directly and indirectly in the manufacture of intoxicating drinks are doing against the cause of Christ and humanity? Should we be more zealous for the interests of our country than for the cause of God and humanity?

Native wine is another fruitful source of the spread of intemperance. Many acquire an appetite for stimulants from its use, persons of both sexes sometimes drinking it till they become drunk. This should alarm us as Christian ministers, and arouse us to the most determined opposition to its use, or any other intoxicating drink; nor should we rest till every tippler is cured or dismissed from the Church, to which all such are a disgrace.

This Conference has said that "intemperance in all its various forms, and especially in the use of intoxicating drinks, is at variance not only with our holy Christianity, but with the best interests of mankind." Again, we have unanimously voted that the recommending of beer and ale, as a medicine by physicians, is a growing evil. The result is that many members of the Church are becoming drunkards. The idea that the drugged ale and other liquors of the present day will heal diseases, is absurd, and every man to whom it is offered should stop and debate, and settle the question, which he values most—his soul or his body. Was that mere rhetoric, or do we as Methodist preachers believe the sentiment? It is high time that we should not only speak but act, and that, too, in such a way that our power will be felt.

There are thousands who show their love (?) for the returned soldier by giving him intoxicating drinks. Shall we stand by with closed lips, and see the men who have bared their bosoms to the storms of war—who have escaped the traitors' missiles of death—come back to their homes, only to be stripped of their well-deserved honors, sent to a dishonorable grave and a drunkard's hell? We sympathize with, and do all we can, to comfort those who have been bereaved by traitors' hands, and mourn over the death of those who have died in the defense of our country. But the death of the drunkard is more sad to contemplate. There is something of which to be proud in the death of those who die in battling for our liberties; but when Intemperance has killed his victim, there is no ray of hope to illuminate the darkness, no comfort to alleviate our sorrow, no honor connected with such a death to redeem it from the disgrace that is attached to it. It is from such a calamity as this that we would call upon you to deliver our young men.

The truth on this subject often offends, but by fearlessly proclaiming it we may save souls from death. We may have to sacrifice the friendship of some; but can not we make such a sacrifice for Christianity and humanity?

Brethren, we beg of you, in the name of God, lift up your voices against this growing evil, not once or occasionally, but give "line upon line, and precept upon precept." Therefore,

1. Resolved, That we condemn the practice of keeping liquors or wines, as a beverage, in the houses of our members.

2. Resolved, That we hold it to be an evil, that destroys our influence for good, to sell supplies to those engaged in the traffic in any way.

3. Resolved, That it is the deliberate judgment of this Conference, that the use of wines, beer, or ale, by our members is a clear violation of our General Rule, and that the person who drinks wine, beer, or ale as a beverage, should be dealt with as a violator of our rules.

4. Resolved, That it is the duty of our preachers to enforce our rules strictly, and let the world see that our temperance is not all in Conference resolutions.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

THE Committee on the State of the Country present the following as their report:

Whereas, we are in the midst of a great national crisis; and, whereas, the present contest for victory between the Southern and Northern sections has involved in it the life of the nation, and the highest forms of civil and religious liberty; and, whereas, the question of man's capacity for self-government, which has been in solution since the adoption of our national Constitution, is now being tested by the severest ordeal; and, whereas, there is a divided sentiment in the country as to the wisest and most efficient means to be used in saving the life of the nation and securing the liberties of the people; therefore,

1. Resolved, That in the present posture of affairs in our country, as much as we deprecate the spirit of war, it is our firm conviction that the issues now pending in our country can only be safely and permanently settled by the arbitrament of the sword.

2. Resolved, That we cordially sympathize with the present Administration in its endeavors to suppress this wicked rebellion by the subjection of our enemies, and the restoration of our country to law and order again; and that we pledge our moral and, if need be, our physical and material support to the Government till these results are accomplished.

3. Resolved, That the soldiers of our army and navy merit the gratitude of the nation for their self-sacrificing and heroic labors to save the country, and deserve an interest in our warmest sympathies and most fervent prayers.

4. Resolved, That we hereby offer our most unfeigned gratitude and thanks to Almighty God for the signal victories that have recently crowned our arms, both by sea and by land.

5. Resolved, That we have the fullest confidence in the righteousness of our cause, and in the power of the Government, with the Divine blessing, to suppress the rebellion, and to restore the country to peace on a purer and more permanent basis than before.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON FINANCE.

WE deem the proposition that an itinerant ministry, in some form, is essential to the world's salvation so self-evident as to require no argument. The time has come when the prosperity of our own people justifies the expectation that every charge will furnish a sufficient and ample support to their several pastors. God has greatly blessed the nation, and none more than our own membership; and hence the duty of devising liberal things for those who have sacrificed secular emoluments to preach the Gospel. The time has come when the honor of the Church and the success of our ministry can no longer be maintained while deficiencies in ministerial support are allowed to occur in the several charges. The country teems with wealth, increasing wealth; the returns of both capital and labor are greater than ever before; while the expenses of family support are correspondingly increased: hence the duty of the Church to increase her support to her ministry.

We recommend the following plan:

1. It shall be the duty of the last quarterly conference of each year to fix the time and place of holding the financial meeting, to which the Estimating Committee shall present their estimate for the pastor's support, which meeting shall be composed of the preacher or preachers of the station or circuit, the stewards, leaders, and Estimating Committee. The meeting shall then distribute the amount to the several classes, according to numbers and financial ability.

2. The several charges within our bounds are earnestly advised to lay aside the old practice of securing what they can on the eve of quarterly meeting, and instead, where funds are not raised by pew rent, secure the preacher's salary by subscription from the membership, apportioned according to the ability of each, and from persons attending upon our ministry.

3. We earnestly urge our congregations, through their officers, to employ such diligence that no arrearages shall be carried from one quarter to another, thereby burdening the close of the year with embarrassing deficiencies. As sons of Wesley we should do this, as every thing else, "at the time."

4. Whenever the deficiencies of a charge are such as indicates its inability or indisposition to meet its obligations in supporting a full ministerial supply, the presiding elder shall recommend the presiding Bishop of the ensuing Annual Conference to unite said charge to another, or so supply the charge as that deficiency shall not again occur.

5. In the judgment of this Conference the obligation to pay in full the preacher's salary is as binding upon the congregation and individual members thereof as the payment of promissory notes in bank, and should be met as promptly.

6. The presiding elders of this Conference shall present this report and plan at the first quarterly conferences of the several charges of their districts, and shall cause it to be read in the congregation at the first quarterly meeting; and on circuits the stewards shall cause it to be read in every appointment as soon thereafter as possible.

7. The Estimating Committee shall consult with the preacher as to the amount necessary for his support, and the presiding elder shall inquire, at the first quarterly conference before putting the estimate of the Committee on its passage, if such consultation has been had.

REPORT ON ITINERANCY.

THE more we study the theory and practical workings of our itinerant system the more fully are we convinced of its adaptation to its great object—the spreading of "Scripture holiness over these lands."

We are convinced that, if in any cases any of us fail, it can not be traced to a defect in our system, but may—in some cases, at least—be attributed to a failure on the part of those to whom the work is committed to faithfully carry it out.

If our branch of the great army of Christ succeeds in the future as she has in time past, it must be by a strict adherence to, not simply the spirit of our Discipline loosely construed, but to its letter; it must be by minding "every point therein, great and small."

We therefore submit the following:

1. Resolved, That as ministers, charged with this great responsibility, we will endeavor more faithfully to discharge the obligations imposed upon us. 1. Our duty in regard to the attendance of our membership upon the various means of grace. 2. Our duty in regard to those who sustain official relations to the Church. 3. Our duty to the children of our charges.

2. Resolved, That it is a mistaken policy to enlarge the classes to four or five times the size specified in the Discipline, thus rendering impracticable the proper performance of the duty of the leader.

3. Resolved, That the habit which is growing among our people of sitting during prayer should be discouraged by all of our ministers.

4. Resolved, That we receive with gratification the beautiful and impressive additions to our Ritual, adopted by the late General Conference; and that its uniform use will be of decided advantage.

REPORT ON PARSONAGES.

YOUR Committee, to whom this subject was referred, have had the same under consideration, and, upon examination, find thirty-one charges in the bounds of the Conference without parsonages. They beg leave, therefore, to offer the following:

Resolved, That each preacher, having charge of a circuit or station where there is no parsonage, shall proceed at once, if practicable, to buy or build; or where the houses need repairs, or where they are not furnished with heavy furniture, to proceed at once, with the advice of the official board, to purchase the same, and endeavor to carry out the provisions of the Discipline.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN AND SANITARY COMMISSIONS.

THESE two great organizations of Christian sympathy and benevolence are eminently entitled to the most cordial support of all our people. The Sanitary Commission first entered upon its work of mercy, and, by the immense contributions that have poured into its treasury, has been enabled to minister very largely and efficiently to the wants of our noble soldiers.

The Christian Commission, by seeking to save both soul and body—by its benefactions both temporal and spiritual, dispensed by Christian ministers and laymen who go as unpaid delegates to the field—has a pre-eminent claim upon the Christian Church. These delegates, in many cases, supply a lack of chaplain service. The distribution of religious newspapers, books, and tracts, which forms so large a part of the work of this Commission, has been of incalculable advantage to the army; the stores sent through its agency go directly to those who need them, and the testimony of army surgeons and others connected with the service abundantly proves that thousands of lives have been saved to the country through the labors of this noble organization.

We recommend for your adoption the following :

1. Resolved, That, as members of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, we cherish undiminished confidence in these noble philanthropic institutions which have conferred such invaluable aid and blessing upon our armies, and that we pledge to them our earnest support.

2. Resolved, That we recommend the reappointment of Rev. J. F. Loyd as Conference Missionary to the Army of the Cumberland.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. J. F. Marlay as Secretary of the Cincinnati Branch of the United States Christian Commission.

W. YOUNG, Chairman.

J. J. THOMPSON, Secretary.

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S AID.

THE Committee on Freedmen's Aid submit the following report :

The great problem that deeply agitated the minds of the wise and good for years is now being solved amid war's commotion, and the chains of the slave are being broken.

The great and increasing multitudes wonderfully made free in the providence of God, while they sing their jubilee, are only on the threshold of the higher destiny awaiting them, and appeal to the Christian and the patriot for sympathy and help. The work of preparation for their new social, political, and religious condition is one of the greatest works of Christian benevolence ever committed to any people, and we shall secure alike the blessing of God and the interest of present and future generations by fidelity to this trust.

Our Government, while grappling with the gigantic rebellion, has done nobly in providing for many of the pressing wants of the freedmen.

There has also been a noble response to this call to duty on the part of the people, and the various Commissions working in this cause have distributed large amounts of clothing, implements of husbandry, and provisions among the thousands thrown into the camps in great destitution. Schools have been established at the different freedmen's camps and military posts throughout the Mississippi Valley, and thousands are thus trained intellectually and morally, and are being gradually prepared to assume the responsibility of their new and higher life.

From the reports of the different associations in the West to a convention held at Indianapolis, last July, we find their contributions to be $127,700 in cash, and $140,500 in supplies, making a total of $268,200. This, together with what has been done by other parties, will furnish an idea of the amount contributed to this cause.

While all this is being done for their relief and civilization, the way is opening for the Church to carry to them the Gospel of Christ, without which there can be no true social, civil, or moral elevation, and by which they only can be fitted for the destiny dawning upon them.

We submit the following for adoption:

1. Resolved, That, while we are highly pleased with the interest Government has taken in providing for the freed people, we should co-operate in sending clothing to the naked, food to the hungry, and books and teachers to the destitute.

2. Resolved, That, while we heartily approve the plan and working of the various associations for the relief of these disinthrall'd sons and daughters of Africa, we feel a special interest in Western Freedmen's Aid Commission as operating within our bounds, and will give it our sympathy and support, and commend it and the cause it represents to all our people, as worthy of their special consideration and sympathy, and demanding their prompt and efficient co-operation.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Rev. John M. Walden as Corresponding Secretary of the Western Freedmen's Aid Commission for the ensuing year.

J. M. ROBINSON, President.

JOHN M. SULLIVAN, Secretary.

REPORT ON MEMOIRS.

REV. HENRY BAKER, M. D., was born in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, March 25, 1797. He was the son of Rev. Henry Baker, of the Otterbein connection, in whose hospitable home Bishop Asbury found so oft a loved retreat. In the early childhood of Dr. Baker his father removed to Knoxville, Tennessee, and opened his house for preaching, and invited the Methodist preachers to labor there. In 1808 this eminently-good man died, and young Henry went to live with his uncle, in Fairfield county, Ohio, and was carefully catechised in the doctrines of the Presbyterian Church.

By occasional attendance on Methodist ministrations he became awakened, and gave his name as a probationer to Rev. James B. Finley. For some months he continued to seek the Lord—to use his own phrase—"as well as he knew how," till the 12th of March, 1812, when, while walking some four or five miles to class meeting, he felt his soul so oppressed by the burden of guilt that he could proceed no further, and he turned aside into the woods to pray; and there, alone with God, he was enabled to exercise saving faith in Christ, and suddenly light and joy broke into his sorrowing heart, and he received the Spirit's indubitable seal, assuring him of his sonship in the family of God.

The following August he received his first license to preach, from Rev. David Young, and went forth, in his fifteenth year, to preach Christ to ruined man, and was distinguished as "the clear-headed boy-preacher." In 1814 he was received on trial in the Ohio Conference; in 1816 was ordained deacon by Bishop Roberts; and in 1818 was ordained elder by Bishop M'Kendree.

During the earlier years of his ministry he labored on the large circuits, compassing four or five hundred miles—encountering difficulties and enduring privations known only to the early itinerants, who planted the Churches in this then Western wilderness, into whose labors we have entered.

In 1818 he was appointed to the Western Reserve, which at that time was embraced in one circuit, but is now divided up into seven presiding elders' districts, with over one hundred pastors in the several circuits and stations. In this large field his health received a shock from which he never fully recovered.

In 1820-21 he was appointed to Hamilton and Rossville, which he organized into a station. Finding that the most ample support the Church could or would give would not meet the necessary wants of himself and wife, he took charge of the Academy, and labored as a teacher through the week. This additional labor, added to his pastoral work, was too much for his shattered constitution, and before the close of his second year he was obliged to desist from his abundant labors, and at the ensuing Conference asked for a location, and assumed the study of medicine. In this new profession he acquired an enviable distinction as a physician of great skill and prudence, and was eminently favored with the confidence and affections of those who employed him.

During his professional life he preached regularly on the Sabbath, often protracting the meetings, which were marked with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and the conversion of hundreds of souls who were given to him for his hire, and as seals to his ministry.

In 1840 he relinquished a large and lucrative practice, and offered himself again to the Conference, and gave himself wholly to the work, and was appointed to Lancaster station, and from that time served with great fidelity and efficiency in the various charges to which he was sent till the Fall of 1861, when he received a superannuated relation to the Conference, and settled in Piqua, Ohio, where he was greatly beloved and honored by the Church of his choice, sister Churches, and community in general.

Last November he received an appointment from the Freedmen's Aid Society, and went on an important mission to Vicksburg, Mississippi. His quenchless zeal for God and humanity prompted him to this last and fatal effort, which proved too much for his energies. He fell on the moral battle-field with harness on, and died "in the front," just where the hero would prefer to die—eliciting the reflection:

"How beautiful it is for man to die
Upon the walls of Zion! to be called,
Like a watch-worn and weary sentinel,
To put his armor off, and rest in heaven!"

His last sickness and dying hours furnished a living sermon of the truths he taught so long and well. Some days before his death he requested his wife to tell him candidly what she thought about his getting home again, and cautioned her not to fear the effect of the utterance of her inmost thoughts. When fears were expressed that he would no more return to his home, he calmly said, "The will of the Lord be done." Speaking of his approaching death, he said, "I have been looking into that matter a long time, and a great deal more so of late than ever before, and I have a strong and abiding confidence in God that, through Christ, I shall be accepted at last, and all will be well."

At one time, when some of the precious promises of God were cited, his face lighted up with unwonted brilliancy, and he exclaimed, "O, the promises! last night I lay here putting them all together, and they were so many and so precious; and, O, they are all ours—every one of them ours—all ours; God has said it, and he is so wise, so perfect in all his ways. Yes, he hath said it, and he will do it. He hath spoken, and he will bring it to pass. Why, they are all ours."

At another time he became triumphant, and on hearing the Bible read he exclaimed, "How precious is every word in that blessed book of God—every word is so precious! Bless the Lord, my wife! O, bless the Lord, my soul!"

When his wife said, "O, husband, how can I live without you?" he replied: "The love of Jesus—the love of Jesus. Wife, that, that is all. He will always be with you, and he can do more for you than ten thousand times ten thousand of such poor, fallible mortals as I am. Bless the Lord, my dear wife, there will be so many blessings left to be thankful for." Again he said, "I try to bring myself, and the cross, and the Savior close together, and thus I find rest." Thus, with calm and peaceful assurance, he gradually declined, till about six o'clock, on last Christmas eve, when he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, his last utterances being, "Peace! peace! sweet peace in Jesus!" This sentence being echoed by his faithful wife, he audibly responded, "Yes, peace in Jesus!" and his freed spirit soared to the bosom of his Father and his God.

It is remarkable that his death-utterance was also the subject of his last sermon. While on the steamboat, on the way to his new field of labor, the officers requested him to preach to them on the Sabbath. He complied, and with unusual vigor of mind and power of voice preached an able and impressive sermon from these precious words: "The work of righteousness shall be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever." Isaiah xxxii, 17. He described the character of the righteous; their well-grounded confidence; their holy tranquillity in life, in death, and in heaven.

This sermon is said to have been the happiest effort of his life; like the fabled swan's last song, the sweetest. Its effect was great, and he was at once importuned to preach again in the evening. But his work was done; he never preached again.

Dr. Baker was a clear thinker, a forcible writer, and an admirable speaker. He published a masterly work in 1856, entitled "Oligarchy and Hierarchy," in which he dealt skillful and stalwart blows on "Slavery and Romanism," which he considered as twin systems of human oppression, at utter variance with the Bible, the Church, and the God-given rights of every human being. In this noble work Dr. Baker said—1856—"He who would suggest or aid in the work of dissolving the Union of these States, his name, though it may have been illustrious, shall be gibbeted on every hill-top throughout the land, as a monument of his crime, and the means of his punishment; and he shall be the grief and shame of his country." "All who should attempt to sunder the sacred bonds that have bound us together in our childhood's weakness, our youth, and our vigorous growth to our present gigantic proportions, should be accounted as the basest of traitors, and enemies to their country."

Thus did the departed patriot speak, while he was yet with us, bearing Jehovah's signet seal upon his noble brow. But he has served his generation in his day, according to the will of God, and has fallen asleep.

Memoir of Rev. Edward D. Roe, M. D.

REV. EDWARD D. ROE, M. D., was born in Fredericksburg, Va., in 1801. He was reared in Baltimore, and educated in Connecticut. His parents were strict Episcopalians, and he was trained up in the strictest tenets of that sect of our religion. A goodly formal saint he long appeared in sight, and so remained till the year after his marriage with Mrs. Olivia Davenport, his now disconsolate widow. During that year, the sin-convincing spirit blew, and beneath the eye of God faded his virtuous show, and he was led to see the insufficiency of the form without the power. His spirit was alarmed and brought into distress, and he fled to the atoning Lamb, and was freely saved by grace, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in Zanesville, under the successful labors of Rev. William B. Christie, in 1828.

The next four years he lived in Norwich, Muskingum county, engaged in merchandising, and labored extensively and successfully as a local preacher till 1832, when he left a lucrative business and consecrated himself wholly to the work of the ministry of reconciliation, and was received on trial in the old Ohio Conference, and was appointed to Lancaster circuit; in 1833-'34 to Marietta; 1835, Rushville; 1836, Charleston; 1837, Eastern charge, Cincinnati; 1838, New Richmond; 1839, Milford; 1840, Fulton; 1841, Somerset; 1842, Putnam; 1843, Parkersburg. During the last year his health so failed that he was compelled to ask a superannuated relation to the Conference, and located in Fulton, to practice medicine, for which he was eminently qualified; but finding that the labor and exposure of an extensive practice prevented his restoration to health, he moved to Delaware, Ohio, and commenced merchandising. Here his health was restored, and, though his business was eminently prosperous, he again abandoned it, and offered himself to the Conference, finding that "the Word of the Lord was as a fire in his bones, and he could not stay." In 1846 he was appointed to Kingston; in 1847 to Circleville; in 1848-'49 to Greenfield station; in 1850 to Putnam; in 1851 to Yellow Springs; in 1852 to Mount Washington. The next Fall he took a superannuated relation on account of ill health, and went into business in Cincinnati. After two years he again entered the Conference, to which its members always welcomed him, and was appointed to Maineville circuit two years. In 1858 he was appointed to King's Creek circuit. His last appointment was to Fletcher circuit. Here his enfeebled health rendered him unequal to the heavy duties of the charge, and being tendered an appointment in the Treasury Department of the Government, at Washington City, in the Controller's office, for which his eminent business habits fully qualified him, he accepted the appointment under Hon. Salmon P. Chase, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and entered upon his duties last November, and discharged them with entire acceptability to the Department.

He preached in the different churches in Washington nearly every Sabbath, to the delight and edification of the people. He loved to preach the glorious Gospel of the blessed God. The Sabbath before he died he preached his last sermon, in Wesley Chapel, from this precious text: "Hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, which is given unto us." He had an appointment to preach the next Sabbath; but his work was done; that Sabbath his own funeral sermon was preached to a deeply-afflicted audience, who realized that "a prince and a great man had fallen in Israel."

His disease was bilious fever, with partial paralysis, which baffled the skill of his eminent physicians. Just before his death his wife said to him: "Husband, is Jesus precious? If so, just raise one finger in token thereof;" when, summoning all his energies for a last testimony, he raised both hands, and shortly passed away under a sweet smile which was impressed on his countenance.

"That was the soul's farewell;
The impression, O how fair!"

Dr. Roe possessed a mind of rare qualities, and a heart tenderly susceptible to all that is good. His manners were faultless. He was eminently a Christian gentleman—the very soul of honor. "He was a faithful man, and feared God above many." His sermons were models of neatness, order, accuracy, unity, directness, fervor, pathos, and evangelism. He was successful, too, as the glorious revivals under his ministrations abundantly attest. Hundreds of souls were added to the Lord and the Church by his labors, many of whom are still spared to the Church as the seals of his ministry.

REPORT ON BETHEL CAUSE.

YOUR Committee, to whom was referred the interests of the Bethel cause, respectfully beg leave to present the following as their report:

The Bethel cause throughout the world has for its object the temporal and spiritual interests of all persons under its charge. It embraces, as the field of its operations, an area of 6,000,000 square miles in the United States, and more than 12,000 miles of navigable water, on which floats a commerce of $10,000,000, managed by 300,000 men and boys. It contains under its charge some 20 missions and stations, in which 44 hired laborers, besides 973 voluntary laborers, are engaged in attending to the wants of the body, or the higher necessities of the soul, by the distribution of food and raiment, and the ministration of the Gospel of peace.

Its library contains 44,000 good books, with a liberal distribution of the Holy Scriptures and religious tracts. The hold it has gained on the affections of the people may be judged of when it is stated that not less than $122,489.53 have been contributed during the present year for its support.

It labors for the sanctification of American commerce, found on whatever sea or river; for the spiritual welfare of her gallant navy of 620 vessels, requiring 50,000 men, who are now boldly engaged in battling for our nation's right and freedom's glorious cause; and for the evangelization of the 300,000 hardy seamen from all the nations of the earth. While at the missions and stations of the Western Department the gifts of benevolence and labor of love are richly abounding, yet in none more so than in that more immediately within the bounds of the Cincinnati Annual Conference, located in the Queen City, the emporium of the West. The Cincinnati Union Bethel provides clothing and religious instruction for 2,500 children, among whom are 600 children of river men; 400 children of Union soldiers, 33 of which children were made fatherless by the terrible battle of Stone River. Yet, much as is the good accomplished by the Bethel cause, we believe it still labors under embarrassments, from the fact that at best it can only organize those under its religious influence into an association that is not ecclesiastical in any proper sense of the word, with articles of faith which are more negative and general than positive and specific. This, however, your Committee does not see how to avoid, as the Bethel cause is the cause of all in general, and of no orthodox branch of the Church in particular. On the whole, we heartily recommend this cause to the friends of humanity for their heart-felt sympathy and co-operation, and respectfully submit for adoption the following:

1. Resolved, That, as members of this Conference, we will use our influence in favor of the Western Seamen's Friend Society, and co-operate with any of its authorized agents, when in the bounds of our pastoral charges.

2. That we recommend the appointment of Rev. J. J. Hill as Agent for said Society for another year.

Respectfully,

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

WHILE we rejoice in what has been done in this important Christian enterprise—an enterprise we do not sufficiently estimate, in its practical importance to the Church of God, as a powerful agency in saving the souls of perishing men—and while we are pained that the heralds who proclaim reconciliation between God and sinner, peace and good-will to men, have not availed themselves of this mighty leverage in overthrowing the kingdom of darkness, and in ushering in of the kingdom of the Prince of Peace, we therefore earnestly recommend to the Conference for its action the following:

1. Resolved, That each presiding elder be instructed by this Conference to bring the Tract cause before the first quarterly meeting conference in each station and circuit in his district, and said conference shall appoint a committee whose duty it shall be to devise and execute plans for Tract distribution.

2. Resolved, That each preacher in charge shall take up an annual collection for the Tract cause.

3. Resolved, That each preacher in charge be requested to appoint proper persons to distribute Tracts within the bounds of his work.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

Operations of the Parent Society.

THE Bible year, ending March 31, 1864, was one of unparalleled success. Total receipts, $560,578.60, showing an advance on the preceding year of $137,990.60.

Books Printed and Issued.

The whole number of books printed during the year was 1,592,196; issued, 1,500,564, and of these 75,418 were distributed in foreign lands. The total issues during the last three years, of the war, 3,778,105 volumes, exclusive of foreign distribution, valued at $848,360.61, and this number exceeds the issues of the first twenty-eight years of the Society, 1816 to 1844, inclusive, 193,845 volumes, making a grand total of volumes issued since the organization of the Society, in 1816, of 18,854,282.

Gratuitous Work at Home and in the Foreign Missionary Field.

Donations by the Society were made during the year, in money and books, amounting to $181,144.83, of which amount more than $60,000 were expended in the foreign department alone.

Army and Navy.

The total number of volumes distributed in the army and navy since the war began, by the Parent Society and its auxiliaries, is probably 2,000,000, of which number 776,075 volumes were distributed by the Christian Commission alone.

Freedmen.

To the freedmen of the South, in schools and camps, some 20,000 volumes have been granted, with a continually-increasing demand, and thousands of colored troops have been supplied, with the armies to which they belong.

Seceded States.

By flag of truce, with the full permission of the Government and military authorities, grants have been made of more than 200,000 volumes for the supply of the rebel troops and others beyond the limits of our lines; and during the month of August 50,000 volumes were granted to the Memphis and Shelby County Bible Society for the Trans-Mississippi

Rebel Army and citizens. "If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head."

Bible Cause in Ohio.

The receipts for the cause in this State during the year ending March 31, 1864, amounted to $68,527.95, showing an advance of $16,764.41.

Bible Operations in South-Western Ohio.

The past year of the Bible cause in this field has been one of unexampled prosperity, showing a grand total of receipts from all sources of $25,865.51, an advance on the preceding year of nearly $7,000.

In the prosecution of the work, I visited during the year sixty-one auxiliaries and branch societies, delivered 183 Bible sermons and addresses, traveled 4,838 miles, and sent out 646 letters and circulars pertaining to my agency. There are in the field some 500 Protestant Churches, some of which do not co-operate with the Society.

Seventeen auxiliaries have thoroughly canvassed their fields during the year; 19,875 families have been visited, and 941 of them, which were found destitute of the Scriptures, were supplied. This immense work has been accomplished chiefly through the instrumentality of the 140 branch societies and the noble band of voluntary, unpaid local agents, amounting in number to 1,410, the benefit of whose services, in scattering the Word of Life and leading souls to Christ, eternity alone can unfold.

Besides supplying the Bible wants of the destitute at home, the soldiers have not been neglected. Nearly 15,000 copies of the Scriptures have been given to the troops, the great majority of which were furnished by the Cincinnati Young Men's Bible Society. This work of distributing the Word of Life among all classes of men, supplying the destitute, troops, gun-boats, etc., has been prosecuted at an expense of nearly $10,000.

And yet it is most gratifying to know that, besides doing this work, the societies have kept on hand a good stock of books, paid off their indebtedness in most cases, and, with but few exceptions, have made larger donations to the Parent Society than ever before.

The plan of forming Sunday schools into branch Bible societies, inaugurated at the beginning of the year, has been prosecuted with success. During the year nearly 100 schools have been organized as Bible societies in my field. These are just beginning to bear fruit, indicating that they will be efficient co-laborers, and that the children will receive a training, in connection with the Bible work, that will tell happily on its interests in all coming time.

Well may we exclaim, "What hath God wrought?" In view of the constant drain upon the resources of the country for sanitary purposes, the United States Christian Commission, freedmen, the relief of refugees, and other objects, the brief statement above evinces a growing interest in the Bible cause in this field; and God is developing, to a wonderful extent, unparalleled in the history of the nation, the benevolent sentiment of the people, alike worthy of his grace and honorable to our Christian character. To his name be all the praise!

ADDRESS TO THE CHURCH ON MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

DEAR BRETHREN,—In compliance with the resolutions passed at the recent session of our Conference, we very respectfully address you the following letter on ministerial support. In doing so we are persuaded we need offer no apology. The comfortable support of those who minister at the altar is so explicitly taught, both in the Scriptures and by our Church, that were it not for melancholy facts we would think it altogether unnecessary to address you at all. These facts, however, warrant us in making this special appeal, however humiliating it may be both to you and your pastors.

It is a fact that no class of men, with the same amount of capital employed, have been so poorly remunerated as those who have given themselves up, in time, talents, and lives, to preach the Gospel of the grace of God. And of no class of ministers is this more emphatically true than of the ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

While the ministry is the most honorable and blessed work in this life, affording the largest field for talents and usefulness, yet these considerations can not support, furnish, and educate the families of the ministry. To an entire consecration to this holy work it is indispensably necessary that the mind of the minister feel perfectly easy on the subject of his support. Whatever may be his devotion to, or talent for his responsible calling, if indifference as to his necessities on the part of those whom he serves is manifested; if embarrassment and want stare him and his family in the face ; if his people are full and abounding in every thing, while he lacks almost the necessities of life, he is at once crippled, becomes the subject of fierce temptations, his influence for good is impaired, the Church he serves suffers loss, not for want of a faithful pastor, but from the neglect of those who are bound to provide for him and his family.

A large number of our ministers during the past year have suffered embarrassment. Some have been obliged to seek employment during the week in cultivating the soil, raising corn, etc., while others have come up to Conference, having expended from one to three hundred dollars more than their allowance, while others tell the sad story of debts incurred to the amount of from $100 to $200. Where this will stop it is not difficult to foretell, if the proper remedy is not applied. If the support of your minister has always been meager—and no well-informed man or woman in the Church can deny it—requiring the most rigid economy, what has it been during the past three years, and especially the last year?

Dear brethren, we need not tell you that every thing has advanced from 100 to 300 and some articles to 400 per cent. Compare the scale of prices before the war with that of the three years past, and especially with the last year, and you will not be surprised that your ministers make this appeal to you :

	Three Years Past.	The Present.
1 spool of thread.....	5 cents.....	20 cents.
1 pound of sugar.....	10@12 “	25@30 “
1 pound of coffee.....	12@15 “	60 “
1 pound of beef.....	8@10 “	15@20 “
1 yard of muslin.....	12@15 “	60@75 “
1 yard of calico.....	12 “	50@60 “
1 barrel of flour.....	$4 50	$10 00

Thus we might continue the list. But this increase in every article of living makes it imperatively necessary that there should be a large advance on the salaries of your preachers.

If we were persuaded that our people lack ability to meet this increased demand, we would be silent. But they are not embarrassed as a general thing. They have shared largely in the general prosperity of the country. Merchants, manufacturers, farmers, and mechanics, have at no time realized such profits. Their ability to give has increased with increased profits. They pay for merchandise, material, labor, current prices as freely and with the same ease they did when these articles were bought at one-third of their present rates. They live as comfortably, yea, many as luxuriously, and even more so than they ever did. It is, then, no want of ability. Another fact in proof of this is found in the enlarged contributions of the Church to the various benevolent causes that appeal to them. Take, for instance, the missionary cause. Never has the Church responded to this noble enterprise with such prompt and princely donations as during the past three years. While we have rejoiced in this increasing evidence of the consecration of the Church of Christ to the great interests of humanity, we have felt, with some sadness, the manifestation of a want of a correct sense of obligation to fully meet the demands of the noble, self-sacrificing men and women at home who preach to them the Word of Life. The ministry have no homes—they gave them up when they consecrated their lives to this holy work; they have few home comforts; they gave them up too; they have no incomes; they gave them up too. They could appreciate all these—their wives, their children have these wants, aptitudes, tastes, in common with the membership. The office of the lawyer, the doctor, the store-room of the merchant, the shop of the mechanic, the clerkships and posts of trust and honor, the palatial home, the vine-covered cottage, with its shrubs and flowers, the well-stored cellar, and the full larder, the full purse and ample means; all these the minister and his family could appreciate and enjoy, and might have had, but he laid them on the altar, gave them up to serve the Church, when he said:

"The love of Christ doth me constrain
To seek the wandering souls of men."

To their comfortable support, the Church is first pledged by the holiest obligations. It is her sacred duty, antecedent to all others, to do this, that she may have an efficient ministry. We were more than gratified to hear our worthy Missionary Secretary, Dr. Durbin, state this to the Conference. It is worthy of remark, too, that those Churches who make ample provisions for their pastors are most devoted to missions and every other good work.

Dear brethren, devise ways and means in your abundance, not only to meet all the present wants of your ministers, increasing their allowances over the past three years from 50 to 100 per cent., but enough to enable them to lay up each year a small amount for the future. How dark that future now is to these men of God! We see around us men, once giants in the Church, now worn-out, bending under the burden of years, with the bare pittance of $30 to $40 per year for a support from the Churches they once served with great acceptability, their angel wives pressed down with penury and want, and in some instances their children estranged and embittered by the neglect of the Church. As this dark picture stares us in the face, we close our eyes, to shut out his discouragements and still labor on, in hope of a good time coming.
